

Singing Competition

2nd February

Singing competition was organized in Indus International University. In which students participated enthusiastically. Harsh Kumar (hotel management department) got first place in the singing competition. Rahul (B.Sc. Mathematics) secured second position. Anusiya (MSc Mathematics) secured 3rd position. Vice Chancellor of Indus International University, Professor Dr. Sanjay Kumar Bahl participated in the competition and boosted the morale of the students and honored the students with awards. Registrar of Indus International University, Professor Dr. Jagdev Singh Rana said that the purpose of singing competition or any other competition is to find and identify a good talent. He blessed the students and wished them a bright future.

Hindi Lecturette

6th February

The students of the university displayed impressive speaking skills and love for Hindi language at the event. Students studied the economic impact of the war between India and Russia on India, the impact of global warming on human life, the major problems and challenges of the Himalayan region in the present scenario, the importance of farmers in present India and the solution to their problems. Nitin Joshi stood first, Rahul from B.Sc Mathematics first semester and Deepak from B Pharma first semester jointly secured second place while Neeraj from Pharmacy got third position.

INSIDE THE ISSUE

Singing Competition

Hindi Lecturette

National Women's Day

New Members of IIU

Ms. Arshpreet Kaur

Assistant Professor
CSE Department

National Women's Day

12th February

On the occasion of the birth anniversary of Sarojini Naidu, the nightingale of India, a program was organized on National Women's Day at Indus International University. 6th H.P. 1 Company N.C.C. Una under the guidance of commanding officer, Colonel R. Saini Cadets actively participated in various activities marking the celebration. In Essay Writing Competition Sakshi stood first, Nitin Joshi got second position and Aanchal Kumari got third position. In the poster making competition, Apoorva stood first, Ritu stood second and Rajni stood third. In Lecture Competition Nitin Joshi got first position, Anjali Thakur got second and Rahul stood third. The competitions were evaluated by respected faculty members. The essay writing competition was presided over by Dr. Ram Krishna and Dr. Shankar Kumar Jha while the poster making competition was conducted by Narendra Kumar and Yukti Mahajan. The oration competition was evaluated by Rishabh Bhanot and Rupam Sharma. Essay by Nisha, Sakshi and Shamli. Coordinating the writing section were Monica Kapoor, Rajni Sharma and Poonam Devi supervised the poster making competition. Lecture coordination was conducted by Vishali Dhiman, Urvashi Devi and Madan Kumar. Additionally, the cultural segment consisting of Bhangra/Nati performance, coordinated by Sachindeep Kaur and Pooja Thakur, added a colorful and vibrant touch to the event. The overall coordination of the event was done by Balveer Singh, Raj Kumar and Gaurav Jaswal.

Management Day

27th February

A program was organized on Management Day by the Department of Business Management at Indus International University, Bathu. On this occasion Vice Chancellor Prof. Dr. Sanjay Kumar Bahl present was as the keynote speaker. He welcomed Chandan, founder of K Tech Lab. Chandan delivered the lecture with an insight into the important elements of modern industry recruitment and the growing importance of digital marketing. The students played the lead role with their energy and passion. Kriti Sharma and Anu's speeches echoed the essence of management in our daily lives while poetry by Simran Saini, Doli, and Monica Rai enthralled the audience. On this occasion, Manisha, Isha, Priya, Dolly, Aditi, and Jaspreet Kaur filled the program with rhythm and joy with the presentation of the Pahari Naati dance and Punjabi Bhangra. Vice Chancellor Dr. Sanjay Kumar Bahl, Vice Chancellor and Registrar Dr. Jagdev Singh Rana expressed their heartfelt gratitude to the keynote speaker and urged the students to embrace such opportunities for skill enhancement.

