NCC Camp

8th May

Eighteen eager cadets of Indus International University are participating in the annual training camp organized by the National Cadet Corps (NCC) at JNV Pekhuvela. Under the guidance of experienced instructors, the cadets will undergo rigorous training in various aspects of military and leadership skills. From physical fitness exercises to weapon handling, and from map reading to disaster management, the camp promises to hone the abilities of these youngsters as well as inculcate in them the values of patriotism and service to the nation. Vice Chancellor of the University Dr. Sanjay Kumar Bahl expressed his pride in the cadets representing the University at such a prestigious platform. He said, "Participation in NCC activities not only enhances the physical and mental strength of our students but also inculcates a sense of responsibility towards society and the country." Registrar Dr. Jagdev Singh Rana also wished the cadets all the best and emphasized the importance of such experiences in shaping well-rounded individuals capable of making positive contributions to society. Rigorous training routines ensure that cadets are in top physical condition, promoting a healthy lifestyle and overall well-being. Cadets get a chance to interact with peers from different backgrounds, fostering friendships and professional connections that can be beneficial in the future. It serves as a proof of their leadership abilities and commitment to serving the nation. Many government organizations, including paramilitary forces and public sector enterprises, prefer candidates with an NCC certificate during recruitment. Universities and colleges often offer incentives such as bonus marks or relaxation in eligibility criteria to NCC certificate holders during admission. NCC C certificate holders with Alpha and Bravo grading get direct admission to SSB, with exemption from written examination. Finally, participation in NCC camps not only equips students with valuable skills but also opens up numerous opportunities for their future endeavours, be it in the military, public sector or education sector. As the cadets of Indus International University embark on this enriching journey, they carry with them the best wishes of their alma mater and aspirations for a brighter tomorrow.
